New FCOB Website

FCOB is pleased to announce the launch of a new website on Thursday, April 25. On that date, when you go to www.fcob.net you will arrive at the new website constructed by the faith-based developer, Cross and Crown, of Chambersburg, PA.

The website has a totally different look and was designed as an evangelistic tool. It is targeted at persons who are seekers or are new to FCOB. The site lifts Jesus Christ and invites seekers and believers alike to come experience our worship, ministries and activities. The new website provides an informational path to all our ministries, including the Deaf Fellowship and the Learning Center.

Though the design of the website aims to draw new persons to FCOB, it also provides access to all the information that members and regular attendees have become accustomed to viewing. There is a portal to Church Community Builder (CCB), providing access to the church calendar, groups, files, events and more. To access CCB, you can either click on Church Community Builder at the bottom of every page on the new website or you can find Member Login to CCB by clicking on the ☰ symbol (more information) at the top of the home page.

We invite you to explore the new website starting April 25. If you have questions or comments, please be in touch with Lerry Fogle (lerry.fogle@fcob.net) or Katherine Lukaszewicz (katherine.L@fcob.net).

Prayer List Availability: Due to privacy concerns, changes are being made to the availability of the weekly Prayer List. It will continue to be available on paper for Sunday morning services. Starting April 19, the Prayer List will not be available on our website or through fcobcurrent. However, the Prayer List will be posted weekly and accessible online to members and regular attendees in Community Church Builder (CCB) in the Files tab of the Entire Church Group. If you need assistance accessing the Prayer List in CCB, contact Laura Anspach, Director of Caring Ministries (laura.anspach@fcob.net) or Katherine Lukaszewicz, Director of Communication (katherine.L@fcob.net). Please make note of these changes and thank you for your commitment to lifting others in prayer.

TODAY

Chancel Flowers are placed in loving memory of our daughter, JoAnn Grooms, by Joan & Ed Despeaux.

Palms are available from the ushers on your way out of service this morning.

A Candle of Remembrance is on the right side of the Chancel area. It is a reminder for us to pray for those who are involved in military or alternative service around the world and to pray for peace.

Chase Alexander Ferguson and Rhiannon Kelly will be baptized this morning.

Deaf Worship in the Chapel at 11:15 a.m. is interpreted for the hearing. All are welcome.

WELCOME • Peace • Purpose • Power

WELCOME to FCOB

ARE YOU NEW?

Whether you're just visiting or looking to "call us home," it is great to have you with us. Be sure to visit fcobconnect located in the Main Lobby. There you will find more info about FCOB and get connected into the community.

WHAT TO EXPECT

The only thing we ask you to do is relax. You are with people just like you. Whether you have been here many times or never been to church before, you can anticipate an encouraging and enlightening experience.

NO STRINGS ATTACHED

If you are a guest with us, please don't feel you need to give any money in the offering. We're thrilled you chose to be with us today.

Good morning! We are so glad you are here!

FCOB exists so that all people may find new life in Jesus Christ. That's what we hope you experience here.

We understand that few people have found a place where they feel they can truly thrive in their relationship with God and others. Our hope is that FCOB is that place. A church that makes a difference in the lives of everyone involved.

We believe church should be exciting, meaningful, and life-giving for the whole family. That's exactly what we strive for in all of our gatherings, from worship, to study groups that we call g.groups. Our g.groups provide opportunities for individuals of all ages to develop deeper spiritual roots with Jesus Christ and others.

We are excited you chose to worship Jesus Christ with us today. We believe God is doing something special here, and the best is yet to come!

Blessings!

Kevin King

Lead Pastor
