

December 10, 2017 Bulletin / Website Announcement
Lead Pastor Search Team

Plans are well underway for the Negotiation Weekend, which is also referred to as the Calling Weekend, for January 5, 6 & 7, 2018. A congregational letter including the candidate's bio and Negotiation Weekend information will be mailed the week of December 18. Mark your calendar now for this exciting weekend. We are making arrangements for a snow date in case the weather necessitates. Pray for weather that will allow us to meet and hear from this Lead Pastor Candidate the Lead Pastor Search Team is recommending to our congregation. Pray for God's guidance and discernment as all of us consider this important decision in the life of our church. Pray for the Candidate as he prepares to be with us the first weekend of January.
