

November-December 2017 Lead Pastor Search Team Announcement

The Search Team has identified a Lead Pastor candidate through the Church of the Brethren placement system, and salary negotiations are underway. In the Church of the Brethren, the weekend set aside for the candidate to meet the congregation and provide a sermon is called the Negotiation Weekend. Some also refer to it as the Calling Weekend. For us at this particular time, the Negotiation Weekend will be January 5, 6 & 7 due to Thanksgiving, Search for the Christ Child, Christmas and the availability of primary stakeholder. Since this date is eight weeks away, we cannot release the name yet, due to confidentiality for the candidate and his home congregation. The candidate's bio and Negotiation Weekend information will be released to the congregation about two weeks prior to the Calling Weekend. Thank you for your continued prayers as together we navigate the process of extending a Call to fill our Lead Pastor position.
